

Live in One of the Region's Most Diverse Communities

- Culturally diverse community is home to a Division 1 University located 90 miles from St. Louis
- Lambert-Saint Louis International Airport provides service to all major US and International destinations
- Choose your practice style! Start your own practice with complete autonomy and full hospital support or join a multi-specialty group which is an employed position
- Opportunity to own endoscopic suites
- ERCP's or EUS's a plus
- 144 bed teaching hospital provides you the opportunity to mold the minds of young physicians
- The public school system is one of the best in the area, drawing top-tier teachers from all across the country. Student to teacher ratio of 15:1 and there are many after school programs to help advance your child's education
- Easy access to Memphis, Nashville & Louisville!
- The community accommodates residents by providing numerous ethnic restaurants and grocery stores
- Two large International grocery stores cater to the large Middle Eastern population
- Over 50 Nationalities Actively Represented in the Community
- Community boasts a wide range of religious affiliations with dozens of churches in the community including mosques and synagogues!

For more information, please contact Caroline Steffen at 847-649-2619 or Caroline@arlingtonhc.com